Foreign Missions

Scattered Syrians of the Middle East

Everyone in the world wants peace, joy, and love. How is your religion providing this for you?" A believer posed this question to Abed, a Syrian refugee, one evening as they sat on the floor of his one-room house, drinking coffee. "My religion does not give me these right now," Abed answered. Please pray for Abed and his family as they grapple with the reality that their traditional beliefs have not answered their deepest needs. Pray that they will continue to listen, ask questions, and open their hearts to the truth of Jesus Christ, the only one who can and will give peace, joy, and love.

Home Missions/North American Mission Board

Don Fisher is a volunteer chaplain for Mercy and Grace Ministries in Coalinga, Calif.

We praise God for the 21 inmates who were baptized in June. Pray for continued spiritual growth for those who are believers and pray more will turn to the Lord. Pray for Brother Peter, who has worked tirelessly and continues to minister on B yard of Pleasant Valley State Prison. Pray for me as I consider starting ministry in a different yard in the same prison. Continue praying for the Bulldog gang. They are not responding. They don't want to go to chapel.
