“The Consequences of Running!”

Jonah 1:7-17

Sermon in a Sentence:

The Consequences of Running from God can taint our testimony, cause us personal suffering, but can also reveal to us our need for a Savior (Jesus Christ).

Question to Ask:

What are the consequences when I choose to Rebel and Run against God?

Consequence #1: Running Can Taint Your Testimony. (V. 7-10)

- In The Running, God is in control. (V. 7)
- During the Run, Your Testimony is at Stake. (V. 8-9)
- At Some Point During the Run, you will have to confess. (V. 10)

Consequence #2: Running Can Cause Personal Suffering. (V. 11-16)

- Something's got to give (V. 11-13)
- Even in the Running, God can be Glorified. (V. 14-16)

Consequence #3: Running Can Reveal Our Need for a Savior. (V. 17)

- You need to be Rescued. (V. 17a)
- God Rescues us by His Grace. (V. 17b)
- Jonah: A Prophetic Sign of the Coming Christ! (V. 17)
